

Workshop on Mixed Methods Approach in Research

Topic	Workshop on mixed methods approach in research using quantitative and qualitative software
Participants	The workshop is suitable for Researchers, Faculty, NGO, Consultants, Practitioners, and Research Scholars etc. engaged in quantitative and qualitative research and using mixed methods in disciplines including Management, Law & Criminology, Medicine, Public Health, Marketing Research, Education, Social Sciences, Humanities, Libraries & Archives, Medicines, and Theology etc.
Rationale	Workshop on mixed methods is rare and usage of quantitative tool and ATLAS.ti, qualitative assessment software is the rarest. This motivates us to conduct such a useful workshop
Methodology	Lecture, role plays, case discussion, presentations, simulations, exercise with real data and field notes using both software- quantitative and qualitative
Duration	2 days
Resource people	In-house faculty and/or along with experts in the field with relevant experience
Expected outcomes	There are four expected outcomes of the program- <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To analyze data using quantitative and qualitative software2. To analyse qualitative data using ATLAS.ti, software3. To understand research methodology and philosophical foundation of research4. To understand and conduct various data collection process5. To understand and apply grounded theory and related approaches